

About us

The "Studienkolleg Leipzig" of Rahn Education Study and Training is a private preparatory college. We are an affiliated institute of the University Zittau/ Görlitz, which is also in charge of conducting the "Feststellungsprüfung" (assessment test) at our college. This ensures objective grading of exams and awarding of degrees and maintains the high standard in the preparation of applicants.

The "Studienkolleg Study and Training" has worked successfully for more than 20 years and is an institution of the nonprofit school society Dr. P. Rahn & Partner. Rahn Education is a charitable education establishment with 40 institutions both in Germany and abroad, with around 7200 students.

The humanistic view on mankind is central to our work. Modern educational concepts, practical orientation and an international alignment offer learners a motivating environment and room to unfold their personality.
